

Bylaws of the International Division of the American Planning Association

1.0 General

1.1 Name

The name is the International Division (hereafter the Division) of the American Planning Association (hereafter APA or the Association).

The Division has been authorized by and is subject to the Bylaws of the APA.

1.2 Purpose

The Division shall foster an interest in, contribute knowledge to, and promote cooperation for a broad range of issues and activities in international affairs of interest to planners by:

- 1.2.1 Creating a network of planners to contribute to the promotion of interests, concerns, practitioner skills, and the competence of its members in a common area of interest or identity, where learning, research, advocacy and interaction serve to advance the security of planners and the role of planning in building communities.
- 1.2.2 Disseminating materials and information about current international practice and theory to members of the Division;
- 1.2.3 Assisting and educating the Association about influencing legislation; planning policy; and membership welfare, which may include but is not limited to workplace fairness, equitable programs and benefits, and opposing discrimination – that affects planners internationally;
- 1.2.4 Facilitating connections with Divisions, Chapters, and other professionals and professional organizations that are concerned with international planning; and
- 1.2.5 Promoting professional communication among members of the Division through a variety of member services, including but not limited to newsletter, conference sessions, workshops, webinars and other publications.

1.3 Mission

The mission of the Division is:

- to advance the understanding and practice of international planning within APA;
- to create a community of practitioners, academics, students, and citizen practitioners who are interested/working in some area of international planning;
- to promote a fuller understanding of how planning can/should impact global issues;
- to provide a link between planners in the US and their counterparts abroad through special programs; and,
- to support/encourage more members of APA to take a greater interest in how the practice of planning in the U.S. is part of a larger and more diverse international movement.

1.4 Nonprofit status

Divisions are recognized as subordinate entities under the nonprofit 501(c)(3) status of the American Planning Association.

1.5 Procedures
